ALUMNI FORUM ON WATER RESOURCES

In an effort to provide an opportunity for the discussion of major issues crucial to the future of Alberta and western Canada, to provide members of the community with a chance to make their work more generally known, and to provide the public with the opportunity to review major issues of concern, the Alumni Association intends to sponsor a series of forums. The forums will consist of an intensive gathering of data and resources—primarily individuals who are expert in a particular relevant field—to arrive at in-depth multidisciplinary discussions of the topics. The forums will be videotaped for distribution through various educational and public television networks in Alberta and western Canada.

On Wednesday, 27 April, the Alumni Association is sponsoring the first annual forum. This year's topic is "The management of water resources in Alberta." Numerous guest speakers will give general discussions of the water resources situation in the province, present a number of relevant case studies, and participate in panel discussions.

Wilson Sterling, Senior Vice-President of Alberta Power Limited, will chair a session that will provide an overview of Alberta's water resources and their management. Seven speakers will be involved. All are members of Alberta Environment: Reg Bailey, Special Projects Director, Office of the Deputy Minister; Ron Hilton, Calgary Regional Administrator, Water Resources Management Division; Al McPhail, Senior River Basin Planner, Southern Alberta Planning Division; Carl Primus, Senior River Basin Planner, Northern Alberta Planning Division; Paul Shewchuck, Head of the Water Quality Branch of the Standards and Approvals Division; Al Strome, Director of the Water Resources Management Division; and John Simpson, Head of the Water Resources Policy and Program Review Branch.

At 1 p.m. Gordon Gabert, Assistant Head of the Groundwater Division of the Alberta Research Council, will speak on "Ground water in Alberta." At 1:30 p.m. a number of case studies will be presented on the areas of industry, utilities, and municipalities. Bill Ross, Environmental Protection Adviser for Imperial Oil, Ron Goforth, Director of Environmental Affairs for Syncrude Canada,

"Hooked Rugs: A Canadian Tradition" is an exhibition of about sixty hooked rugs on display in The Gallery, located at Ring House One. The collection was assembled for International Womens' Year by the Canadian Museum of Carpets and Textiles in Toronto. Shown above are "Mrs Bacon's Mill," made between 1914 and 1918, and "Rose and Two Buds," a twentieth century piece made from a commercial pattern. The rugs will be on display until 22 April.

Keith Provost, Vice-President (Planning) for Alberta Power Limited, and Norm Lawrence, former President and Chairman of Associated Engineering Services Limited, will present the case studies.

At 3:30 p.m. a panel discussion will take place. It will be chaired by Dave Usher of W.D. Usher and Associates Limited; the panel will consist of Arleigh Laycock, Professor of Geography, Don Stanley, President of D.R. Stanley and Associates Limited, and Ed Stashko, Head of the Fire-Weather Section of Alberta Forest Services. Bernard Adler, President of the Alumni Association, and Bill Preshing, Director of Institutional Research and Planning, will then deliver the closing remarks.

Registrations for this forum must be completed and returned, with the $25 fee (which includes lunch), to Lotte Metz, Faculty of Extension, Corbett Hall, by 22 April. For additional information about the forum, telephone Bill Preshing at 432-5298.

ALAN EMERSON CAMERON 1890 TO 1977

Alan E. Cameron, former Professor of Metallurgy at the University of Alberta, died on 7 March at his home in Nova Scotia. Except for a period of service overseas during World War I, Dr. Cameron taught at the University from 1914 to 1937. His original appointment was as a Demonstrator in Geology and Lecturer in Mining and Metallurgy; he became Professor of Metallurgy in 1926.

Dr. Cameron left Alberta to become Deputy Minister of Mines for Nova Scotia.

Alan Emerson Cameron

Later, from 1947 to 1957, he was President of the Nova Scotia Technical College, where he established new programs in Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering.

As recognition of his service to the Canadian mineral industry and to education in this field, he was awarded three honorary degrees. He also served as President of both the Mining Society of Nova Scotia and the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Dr. Cameron received his BSc and MSc in Mining at McGill University, and his doctorate in Metallurgy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
